

International Uzbek Textile Fair

5-6th December 2007, Tashkent

Dear ladies and gentlemen!

We would like to express our unconcealed gratitude to You and would like to inform that it is a great honor for us to invite You to the International Uzbek Textile Fair which is organized by the Government of the Republic of Uzbekistan on the 5-6th of December 2007 in Tashkent, the capital city of Uzbekistan.

You will be able to familiarize yourself with the latest achievements of textile industry of the Republic of Uzbekistan, together with the established chain of production and textile products logistic system. Within the framework of the event, there will be organized a presentation devoted to the topic of investment and export potential of the country. The world textile industry's current state and its perspectives will be discussed during the event as well.

While Your participation in the International Uzbek Textile Fair You will have an opportunity to arrange and conduct negotiations with the producers, exporters and consumers of the textile products, establish close long-term partnership relations and make direct contracts with uzbek producers of high-quality textile products.

We hope that the fair will serve as a basis for our close cooperation and will be beneficial for all interested parties.

Yours Faithfully,
